BANK WATCH LOCKER AGREEMENTS

Why did RBI extend renewal time to Dec 31?

HITESH VYAS MUMBAI, JANUARY 24 IN A major relief to customers, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on Monday extended the deadline for banks to complete the process of renewal of agreements for existing safe deposit lockers/safe custody article facilities in a phased manner till December 31, 2023, from an earlier deadline of January 1, 2023. The RBI has also asked the Indian Banks Association (IBA) to review the model locker agreement and send it to banks by February 28, 2023.

INDIA STACK DEVELOPER CONFERENCE TO BE HELD ON WEDNESDAY

MeitY to conduct 'separate' talks on PIB fact-check in Feb: MoS IT

THE MINISTRY of Electronics and IT (MeitY) will hold a "separate" consultation with stakeholders in February on its latest proposal to empower the Press Information Bureau (PIB) to police "fake news" on social media platforms and other digital services, Minister of State for Electronics and IT Rajeev Chandrasekhar said Tuesday. The measure, proposed under the latest changes to the Information Technology Rules, 2021, has drawn criticism from a wide range of stakeholders, including from civil society organisations to associations representing media companies and journalists.

'India technology stack adoption to help countries save billions'

ADOPTION of India technology stack like unique identifier technology, digital payments and Co-Win will help foreign countries save billions and expedite their digitisation process, electronics and IT minister Rajeev Chandrasekhar said on Tuesday. The government plans to reach out to several countries to offer them technology stack as part of its responsibility as G20 Presidency and expects Indian startups and system integrators to gain from the exercise.

Co-location case: SEBI to appeal against SAT order

THE SECURITIES and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) is all set to challenge the order of the Securities Appellate Tribunal (SAT) quashing its ruling in the NSE co-location scam in the Supreme Court, sources close to the development said. On Monday, SAT had set aside the market regulator's Rs 625 crore disgorgement order against the NSE, its ex-CEOs Chitra Ramkrishna and Ravi Narain in the co-location scam.

Transition to expected credit loss-based provisioning may hit banks only one time: Icra

THE RESERVE Bank of India's proposal to implement expected credit loss (ECL)-based loss provisioning by banks could lead to a transitioning impact of 300-400 basis points, including the provisioning for ECL, while shifting to the IND-AS accounting system, a report said. Banks with higher share of restructured loans, 60 days past dues (DPD) loans and off-balance sheet exposures will see higher impact while those with lower capital cushions would need to raise capital to manage transition, according to rating firm ICRA.
